Provided that in case any Member or Member Secretary, as the case may be, constituting the Committee has not been appointed to the post concerned, the officer holding charge of the post for the time being shall be the Member /Member Secretary of the Departmental Promotion Committee.

(2) The Departmental Promotion Committee shall prepare a list of the candidates whom it considers suitable for appointment to the post concerned arranged in the order of merit and forward the same to the Appointing Authority concerned.

33. Criteria, Eligibility and Procedure for Promotion.- (1) As soon as the Appointing Authority determines the number of vacancies under rule 15 of these rules and decides that a certain number of posts are required to be filled in by promotion, it shall subject to the provisions of sub-rule (6), prepare a correct and complete list of the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified under these rules for promotion on the basis of seniority-cum-merit to the class of post concerned.

(2) The persons enumerated in column number 5 of Schedule-1 shall be eligible for promotion to post specified against them in column number 2 thereof to the extent indicated in column number 3 subject to their possessing minimum qualification and experience, on the first day of the month of April of the year of selection, as specified in column number 6.

(3) No person shall be considered for first promotion in the Service unless he/she is regularly selected on the post from which promotion is to be made in accordance with one of the methods of recruitment prescribed under the provisions of these rules.

(4) No person shall be considered for promotion for three recruitment years from the date on which his/her promotion becomes due, if he/she has more than two children on or after 1st June, 2002:

Provided that,-

- (i) the Government servant having more than two children shall not be deemed to be disqualified for promotion so long as the number of children he/she had on 1st June, 2002, does not increase;
- (ii) where a Government servant has only one child from the earlier delivery but more than one child are born out of a single subsequent delivery, the children so born shall be deemed to be one entity while counting the total number of children;
- (iii) while counting the total number of children of a candidate, the child born from earlier delivery and having disability shall not be counted;
- (iv) any candidate who has performed remarriage which is not against any law and before such remarriage he is not disqualified for appointment under this sub-rule, he shall not be disqualified if any child is born out of single delivery from such remarriage.

(5) Selection for promotion on the post included in the service shall be made on the basis of seniority-cum-merit.

(6) (i) The zone of consideration of persons eligible for promotion shall be as under:-

Number of Vacancies	Number of eligible persons to be considered
(a) for one vacancy	five eligible persons
(b) for two vacancies	eight eligible persons
(c) for three vacancies	ten eligible persons
(d) for four or more vacancies	three times the number of vacancies

(ii) Where the number of eligible persons for promotion to a higher post is less than the number specified above, all the persons so eligible shall be considered.

(iii) Where adequate number of the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, are not available within the zone of consideration specified above, the zone of consideration may be extended to seven times the number of vacancies and the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, (and not any other) coming within the extended zone of consideration shall also be considered against the vacancies reserved for them.

(7) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this rule the conditions of eligibility for promotion and procedure for selection shall be the same as prescribed elsewhere in these rules.

(8) The Departmental Promotion Committee shall consider the cases of all the senior most persons who are eligible and qualified for promotion to the class of post concerned under these rules and shall prepare a list containing names of the persons found suitable on the basis of seniority-cum-merit as per the criteria for promotion laid down in these rules equal to the number of vacancies determined under these rules. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and shall be arranged in the order of seniority of the category of post from which selection is made.

(9) The Departmental Promotion Committee shall also prepare a separate list on the basis of seniority-cum-merit as per the criteria for promotion laid down in these rules containing number of persons selected in the list prepared under sub-rule (8) above to fill temporary or permanent vacancies which may occur subsequently. The list so prepared on the basis of seniority-cum-merit shall be arranged in the order of seniority in the category of post from which selection shall be made. Such a list shall be reviewed and revised by the Departmental Promotion Committee that meets in the subsequent year and that such list shall remain in force till the end of the last day of the year for which the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee is held.

(10) Lists prepared under sub-rule (8) and (9) shall be sent to the Appointing Authority together with Annual Performance Appraisal Reports/Annual Confidential Reports and other service records of all the candidates included in the lists as also of those not selected, if any.

(11) If in any subsequent year, after promulgation of these rules, vacancies relating to any earlier year are determined under these rules which were required to be filled in by promotion, the Departmental Promotion Committee shall consider the cases of all such persons who would have been eligible in the year to which the vacancies relate irrespective of the year in which the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee is held and such promotion shall be governed by the criteria and procedure for promotion as was applicable in the particular year to which the vacancies relate and the service/experience of an incumbent who has been so promoted, for promotion to higher post for any period during which he/she has not actually performed the duties of the post to which he/she would have been promoted, shall be counted. The pay of a person who has been so promoted shall be re-fixed at the pay which he would have derived at the time of his/her promotion but no arrears of pay shall be allowed to him/her.

(12) The Government may order for the review of the proceedings of the Departmental Promotion Committee held earlier on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of record, or on account of a factual error substantially affecting the decision of the Departmental Promotion Committee or for any other sufficient reasons e.g. change in seniority, wrong determination of vacancies, judgment/direction of any Court or Tribunal, or where adverse entries in the Confidential Reports of an individual are expunged or toned down or a punishment inflicted on him/her is set aside or reduced. The concurrence of the Department of Personnel and the Commission (where Commission is associated) shall always be obtained before holding the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee to review the proceedings.

(13) Where consultation with the Commission is necessary, the lists prepared by the Departmental Promotion Committee shall be forwarded to the Commission by the Appointing Authority along with the Personal Files and Annual Confidential Rolls/Annual Performance Appraisal Reports of all the persons whose names have been considered by the Committee.

(14) The Commission shall consider the lists prepared by the Departmental Promotion Committee along with other relevant documents received from the Appointing Authority and unless any change is considered necessary shall approve the lists. In case the Commission considers it necessary to make any change in the lists received from the Appointing Authority, it shall inform the Appointing Authority of the changes proposed by it. After taking into account the comments of the Commission, if any, the Appointing Authority may approve the lists finally with such modification as may, in its opinion, be just and proper and when the Appointing Authority is an authority subordinate to the Government, the lists approved by the Commission shall be disturbed only with the approval of the Government.

(15) Appointments shall be made by the Appointing Authority taking persons out of the lists finally approved under preceding sub-rule (14) in the order in which they have been placed in the lists, till such lists are exhausted or reviewed and revised or remain in force, as the case may be.

(16) The Government may issue instructions for provisionally dealing with promotions, appointments or other ancillary matters in an equitable and fair manner of persons who may be under suspension or against whom departmental proceedings is under progress at the time promotions are considered to a post to which they are eligible or would have been eligible but for such suspension or pendency of such enquiry or proceedings.

(17) The provisions of this rule shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other provisions of these rules.

34. Restriction of promotion of persons foregoing promotions.- In case a person, on his/her appointment by promotion to the next higher post either on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis on the recommendation of the Departmental Promotion Committee, foregoes such an appointment through his/her written request, and if the concerned Appointing Authority accepts his/her request, the person concerned shall be debarred from consideration for promotion (both on the basis of urgent temporary appointment or on regular basis) for subsequent two recruitment years for which the Departmental Promotion Committee is held and the name of such a person who foregoes promotion shall not be included in the seniority-cum-eligibility list to be placed before the Departmental Promotion Committee for subsequent two recruitment years.

PART- VI

36. Urgent temporary appointment.- (1) A vacancy in the Service which cannot be filled in immediately either by direct recruitment or by promotion under these rules, may be filled in by the Government or Authority competent to make appointments, as the case may be, by appointing in an officiating capacity thereto a person eligible for appointment to the post by promotion or by appointing temporarily thereto a person eligible for direct recruitment to the Service, where such direct recruitment has been provided under the provisions of these rules:

Provided that such an appointment shall not be continued beyond a period of one year without referring the case to the Government for concurrence where such concurrence is necessary and shall be terminated immediately on its refusal to concur.

(2) In the event of non-availability of suitable persons fulfilling the requirement of eligibility for promotion, the Government may, notwithstanding the condition of eligibility for promotion required under sub-rule (1) above, lay down general instructions for grant of permission to fill the vacancies on urgent temporary basis subject to such conditions and restrictions regarding pay and other allowances as it may direct. Such appointments shall however be subject to concurrence of the Commission, if required under the rules.

37. Determination of Seniority.- (1) Seniority of persons appointed to the post encadred in the service shall be determined from the date of appointment on the post after regular selection in accordance with the provisions of these rules. Appointment on ad-hoc or urgent temporary basis shall not be deemed to be appointment after regular selection.

(2) The inter-se seniority of persons appointed to a post in a particular category by direct recruitment on the basis of one and the same selection, except those who do not join Service when a post is offered to them within a period of six weeks from the date of issue of order or longer, if extended by the Appointing Authority, shall follow the order in which they have been placed in the list prepared under rule 28:

Provided that the seniority of all persons selected to the posts mentioned in column 2 against serial number 2 and 4 of Schedule-I prior to the Patwar Direct Recruitment Examination, 2015 and the seniority of all persons selected to the post mentioned in column 2 against serial number 6 of Schedule-I shall be determined on the basis of their actual date of joining (as recorded in service book) on the post. In case the actual date of joining on the post is same, the seniority shall be determined on the basis of date of birth. The person whose date of birth stands first shall be deemed to be senior. In case of same date of joining and the same date of birth, the order of the English alphabet of the name of employee shall be criterion for determination of seniority.

(3) The seniority of a person appointed by promotion under these rules or the rules existing prior to the commencement of these rules shall be determined on the basis of the vacancy pertaining to the recruitment year of promotion:

Provided that if the vacancy year of appointment by promotion is the same, the inter-se seniority of persons appointed in the same year shall be determined by the seniority in the lower post:

Provided further that if the year of appointment by promotion is the same and the promotion is from posts in different cadres, the inter-se seniority of persons appointed in the same year shall be determined on the basis of their actual date of joining (as recorded in service book) on the lower post. In case, if the actual date of joining on the lower post is same, their inter-se seniority shall be determined on the basis of date of birth. The person whose date of birth stands first shall be deemed to be senior. In case of same date of joining and the same date of birth, the order of the English alphabet of the name of employee shall be criterion for determination of seniority.

(4) The seniority of a person promoted on the basis of competitive examination under clause (ii) of rule 284 of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957, prevalent prior to 26.05.2015, shall be determined on the basis of the recruitment year of promotion:

Provided that the seniority of the persons appointed on the basis of the same competitive exam shall be determined on the basis of the marks obtained by them in the competitive exam. If the marks obtained are the same, their inter-se seniority shall be determined by their inter-se seniority in the lower post determined as per these rules.

(5) If two or more persons are appointed to the Service during the same year, a person appointed by promotion shall be senior to a person appointed by promotion through competitive examination under clause (ii) of rule 284 of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957, prevalent prior to 26.05.2015,.

(6) The persons selected and appointed as a result of a selection, which is not subject to review and revision, shall rank senior to the persons who are selected and appointed as a result of subsequent selection.

(7) The seniority inter-se of persons selected on the basis of seniority cum merit and on the basis of merit in the same selection shall be the same as in the next lower grade.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the preceding rule, reservation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes employees, with consequential seniority, shall continue till the roster points are exhausted and adequacy of promotion is achieved. Once the roster points are complete the theory of replacement shall thereafter be exercised in promotion whenever vacancies earmarked for Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes employees occur.

Explanation: "Adequate representation" means 16% representation of the Scheduled Castes and 12% representation of the Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the roster point.

38. Period of Probation.- (1) A person entering the service by direct recruitment against a clear vacancy shall be placed as the Probationer-trainee for a period of two years:

Provided that any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

(2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1), each probationer trainee may be required to pass such Departmental Examination and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify.

39. Pay during probation.- A probationer-trainee appointed on the post of Patwari by direct recruitment, shall be paid monthly fixed remuneration during the period of probation at such rates as may be fixed by the Government, from time to time:

Provided that an employee having been regularly selected as per provisions of recruitment rules in the Government service may be allowed emoluments in his/her own pay scale in the existing pay scale of the post during service as probationer-trainee or fixed remuneration of the new post, whichever is advantageous to him/her.

40. Confirmation in certain cases.- (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the preceding rule, a person appointed to a post in the service temporarily or on officiating basis who, after regular recruitment by any one of the methods of recruitment prescribed under these rules has not been confirmed within a period of six months after satisfactory completion of the period of probation of two years' service in case he/she is appointed by direct recruitment or within a period of one year's service in case he/she is appointed by promotion, shall be entitled to be treated as confirmed in accordance with his/her seniority if,-

- (i) he/she has worked on the post or higher post under the same Appointing Authority or would have so worked but for his/her deputation or training;
- (ii) he/she fulfills conditions as are prescribed under rule relating to confirmation subject to the quota prescribed under these rules; and
- (iii) permanent vacancy is available in the department.

(2) If an employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above fails to fulfill the conditions mentioned in the said sub-rule the period mentioned in the said sub-rule may be extended as prescribed for a probationer trainee under the Rajasthan Civil Services (Departmental Examinations) Rules, 1959 and any other rules or by one year, whichever is longer. If the employee still fails to fulfill the conditions mentioned in sub-rule (1) above, he shall be liable to be discharged or terminated from such post in the same manner as a probationer trainee or reverted to his substantive or lower post, if any to which he may be entitled.

(3) The employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above, shall not be debarred from confirmation after the said period of service if no reasons to the contrary about the satisfactory performance of his work are communicated to him/her within the said period of service.

(4) The reasons for not confirming of any employee referred to in sub-rule (1) above shall be recorded by the appointing authority in his Service Book and Annual Performance Appraisal Report.

Explanation: (i) Regular recruitment for the purpose of this rule shall mean,-

- (a) appointment by either method of recruitment or on initial constitution of service in accordance with the prevailing recruitment rules;
- (b) appointment by transfer after regular recruitment where the Service Rules specifically permits;
- (c) persons who have been made eligible for substantive appointment to a post under these rules shall be treated as having been regularly recruited:

Provided that it shall not include urgent temporary appointment or officiating promotion which is subject to review and revision.

- (ii) Persons who hold lien on another cadre shall be eligible to be confirmed under this rule and they will be eligible to exercise an option whether they do not elect to be confirmed on the expiry of two years of their temporary appointment under this rule. In the absence of any option to the contrary they shall be deemed to have exercised option in favour of confirmation under this rule and their lien on the previous post shall cease.

41. Unsatisfactory progress during probation.- If it appears to the Appointing Authority, at any time, during or at the end of the period of probation, that services of a probationer-trainee are not found to be satisfactory, the appointing authority may revert him/her to the post on which he/she is regularly selected immediately preceding his/her appointment as probationer-trainee or in other cases may discharge or terminate him/her from service. The appointing authority shall accord appropriate opportunity to the probationer-trainee before final orders are passed in this respect:

Provided that the Appointing Authority may, if it so thinks fit in any case or class of cases, extend the period of probation of any probationer-trainee by a specified period not exceeding one year.

42. Confirmation.- (1) A person placed on probation under rule 38 shall be confirmed in his/her appointment at the end of his/her period of probation, if,-

- (a) he/she has successfully undergone training and passed the departmental examination as Government may, from time to time, specify including the training and examination provided in rule 35: and
 - (b) the Appointing Authority is satisfied that his/her integrity is unquestionable and that he/she is otherwise fit for confirmation.
- (2) A person appointed to the post mentioned at serial number 1, 3 and 5 of Scheduled-I shall not be confirmed unless he/she has passed training examination as provided under PART IV of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957, if required.

PART -VII

PAY

43. Scale of Pay.- The pay of a person appointed to a post in the service shall be such as may be admissible under the rules referred to in rule 44 or as may be sanctioned by the Government, from time to time.

44. Regulation of pay, Leave, Allowances, Pension etc.- Except as provided in these rules, the pay, allowances, contributory pension, leave and other conditions of service of the members of the service, shall be regulated by,-

- (i) The Rajasthan Service Rules, 1951, as amended from time to time;
- (ii) The Rajasthan Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1958, as amended from time to time;
- (iii) The Rajasthan Traveling Allowance Rules, 1971, as amended from time to time;
- (iv) The Rajasthan Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1971, as amended from time to time;
- (v) The Rajasthan Civil Services (Pension) Rules, 1996, as amended from time to time;
- (vi) The Rajasthan Civil Services (Revised Pay Scales) Rules, 1998, as amended from time to time;
- (vii) The Rajasthan Civil Services (Contributory Pension) Rules, 2005, as amended from time to time;
- (viii) The Rajasthan Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules, 2008, as amended from time to time;
- (ix) The Rajasthan Civil Services (Revised Pay) Rules, 2017, as amended from time to time;
- (x) The Rajasthan Land Revenue(Land Record) Rules 1957; and
- (xi) Any other rules prescribing general conditions of service made by the appropriate authority under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India or any other Act of the State Legislature, time being in force.

45. Removal of Doubts.- If any doubt arises relating to the application and scope of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government in the Administrative Department, whose decision thereon shall be final.

46. Repeal and Saving.- On and from the date of commencement of these rules, -

- (i) the existing clause (aa), (b), (c), (cc) and (f) of rule 4, rule 4A, 5, 5A, 14, 19, 19A, 20, 171, 171A, 177, 177A, 273, 284, 301, 347A and 347B of the Rajasthan Land Revenue (Land Records) Rules, 1957; and
- (ii) all orders and circulars issued in relation to matters covered by these rules and in force immediately before the commencement of these rules to the extent that they are repugnant to these rules, are hereby repealed:

Provided that any action taken under the rules, orders and circulars so repealed shall be deemed to have been taken under the provisions of these rules.

47. Power to relax rules.- In exceptional cases where the Administrative Department of the Government is satisfied that operation of the rules relating to age or regarding requirement of experience for recruitment causes undue hardship in any particular case or where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to age, qualification, experience of any person or other condition of service of any person, it may, with the concurrence of the Department of Personnel, and in consultation with the Commission, where necessary, by order dispense with or relax the relevant provisions of these rules to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner:

Provided that such relaxation shall not be less favourable than the provisions already contained in these rules. Such cases of relaxation shall be referred to the Commission by Administrative Department, where necessary.

Provided further that relaxation in the prescribed period of service or experience under this rule shall only be granted to the extent of 1/3 period of the service or experience prescribed for promotion to any post before holding the meeting of the Departmental Promotion Committee.

Provided also that where the prescribed period of experience for promotion to any post is less than six years, a committee headed by the Chief Secretary comprising of Principal Secretary Finance, Principal Secretary/Secretary Department of Personnel and Principal Secretary/Secretary of the Administrative Department, may consider the cases where forty five percent or more posts are vacant. The committee is empowered to suggest the quantum of relaxation in experience which may be granted in such cases to address the issue of large number of vacancies in promotional posts subject to condition that such relaxation in experience shall not be more than two years.
